

CONFERENCE OF PRESIDENTS OF REGIONS WITH LEGISLATIVE POWERS (REGLEG)

Chair	Marcelino Iglesias Ricou* President of Aragon Region
Members	Regions with legislative powers within the European Union that have their own government and directly elected parliaments and that may be responsible for the implementation of EU law. Members in 8 Member States of the EU.
Aims	REGLEG works to ensure that the special circumstances and interests of the regions with legislative powers are reflected in EU decision-making.
Secretary-General	Pedro García Gracia
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – REGLEG works to ensure that the role of the regions with legislative powers is properly recognised in the making of EU policy and law. – REGLEG continues to press for direct pre-legislative consultation with the regions. – In the field of assessing the conformity of legislative proposals with the principle of subsidiarity, REGLEG offers the expertise of regional administrations to the CoR and looks forward to playing an active part in the CoR. To that end, the coordination committee will draw up proposals for cooperation with the Committee of the Regions, especially for the purposes of impact assessments and subsidiarity monitoring. These proposals will be subject to political endorsement by member regions.
Agenda 2010	Regular meetings (approximately every two months) of the coordination committee of officials from regions in each Member State represented in REGLEG.
