3. Additional remarks

- a. Only duly completed applications that meet the eligibility criteria and are submitted by the application deadline will be considered when establishing a list of suitable candidates who may be invited for an interview.
- b. You will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt upon submission of your application form. It is your responsibility to contact the European Committee of the Regions' Recruitment Sector (recruitment-official@cor.europa.eu) if you have not received an automatic acknowledgement of receipt after submitting your application.
- c. Only candidates selected by the selection panel for an interview will be contacted. If you have not been contacted within six weeks following the application deadline of the vacancy notice, please consider your application unsuccessful.
- d. The appointing authority will first consider applications submitted under Article 29(1)(a) of the Staff Regulations (transfer, appointment or promotion), then (if applicable) applications submitted under Article 29(1)(b) (interinstitutional transfer), and finally (if applicable) applications submitted under then Article 29(1)(c) (candidates who have passed an EPSO and/or internal competition).
- e. By way of derogation from Article 29(1)(a), candidates who have passed internal competitions published under Article 29(3) will be considered in parallel with transfers.

¹ Article 29(1)(b) of the Staff Regulations offers officials the possibility of requesting a transfer to another institution or agency at any time during their career. However, candidates are reminded that, in the interests of the service, the transfer of newly recruited officials less than two years after they first take up their duties is only possible in exceptional cases and for properly substantiated reasons; each individual case has to be submitted for approval to the official's original institution or agency and to the institution or agency to which the person wishes to transfer.

- f. Posts will be filled as and when budget resources permit.
- g. Where the vacancy published belongs to the Directorate for Logistics, the Directorate for Translation, the Directorate for Innovation and Information Technology, or the Public Procurement and Financial Management Unit, please note that the European Committee of the Regions shares these services with the European Economic and Social Committee and that staff in these Directorates work for both Committees without distinction.
- h. The main working languages of the European Committee of the Regions are English and French. For functional reasons, a very good command of English and/or French is therefore generally required.

4. Equal opportunities and special requirements

The European Committee of the Regions strives to avoid any form of discrimination during the selection procedure. It applies an equal opportunities policy as set out in the general provisions of the Staff Regulations (Article 1(d)):

"(...) any discrimination based on any ground such as sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political opinion or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation shall be prohibited."

As part of our equal opportunities policy, we are committed to working with people with disabilities. If, by virtue of your medical condition or special needs, you require reasonable adjustments for a part of the selection process or during the interview, please send an email with your request to recruitment-official@cor.europa.eu. Your request will be treated in strict confidence and no record will be kept.

5. Data protection policy

The personal data contained in applications will be handled in compliance with the European data protection legislation. By providing your personal data in your application, you agree that they will be shared with the panel members and processed by the Recruitment sector and other relevant stakeholders.

Please refer to the Data Protection Notice attached to the automatic acknowledgement of your application or available on the dedicated webpage of our website for further information.
