Data Protection Notice

Stakeholders' Consultations of ENVE commission

1. Introduction

The European Committee of the Regions (CoR) is committed to respecting and protecting your personal data in accordance with Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 \(EUDPR\).

Your personal data may be collected and processed for the purpose of registering you to stakeholders' consultation organised by the ENVE commission and controlling access to the premises of the European Economic and Social Committee (EESC) and European Committee of the Regions (CoR) located in Brussels (Belgium).

2. Who is responsible for the processing of personal data?

The CoR is responsible (as controller) for the processing of personal data.

The responsible service (delegated controller) is Unit B.2 ENVE commission secretariat (enve@cor.europa.eu).

3. What is the purpose of the processing?

Your personal data is processed for the following purposes:

- register individuals participating in the stakeholders' consultation event
- controlling access to CoR and EESC premises
- investigating security incidents, evaluating threats, and analysing risks for the Committees

4. What is the legal basis for the processing?

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is Article 5.1.a of the EUDPR, according to which processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body. Moreover, personal data is also processed pursuant to article 5.1.d EUDPR based on the data subject's consent to the processing of his or her personal data.

5. What personal data are processed?

The following personal data will be processed: surname, first name and e-mail address.

6. Who are the recipients or categories of recipients of your personal data?

Besides the ENVE commission secretariat, your personal data will be processed by the Security Service and the service(s) organising the event.

7. Are your personal data transferred to a third country or international organisation?

Your data will not be transferred to a third country or international organisation.

8. How can you exercise your rights?

You have the right to access your personal data, to rectify any inaccurate or incomplete personal data, to restrict (under certain conditions) the processing of your personal data, to request the deletion of your personal data (if processed unlawfully) and, where applicable, the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your data on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time].

You can direct your queries to enve@cor.europa.eu. Your query will be dealt without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary.

You have the right of recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under the EUDPR have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the CoR.

9. How long are your personal data kept for?

Your data are kept for one year after the validity of the accreditation period. In the event of any security incidents and investigations, this period will be extended in accordance with article 79(2)(b) EUDPR.

10. Are the personal data collected used for automated decision-making, including profiling?

No, the CoR will not use your personal data to make automated decisions about you. "Automated decisions" are defined as decisions made without human intervention.

11. Will your personal data be further processed for a purpose other than that for which data have been obtained?

No, your personal data will not be further processed for a different purpose.

12. Who do I contact if I have queries or complaints?

If you have any further questions about the processing of your personal data, please contact first of all the data controller, enve@cor.europa.eu.

You may also contact the CoR data protection officer (data.protection@cor.europa.eu) and/or the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) at any time.
